

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT BLUEFIELD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 1:24-00143

TRAVIS LEE HARRY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Pending before the court is the motion of defendant Travis Lee Harry for a continuance of the trial in this matter. (ECF No. 20.) In support of defendant's motion, counsel for defendant explains that the charges set forth in the indictment require additional investigation by counsel, which would significantly challenge the present trial schedule. The government does not object to a continuance.

Because failure to grant the requested continuance would likely result in a miscarriage of justice, the court finds that the ends of justice outweigh the interest of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial, see 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and GRANTS defendant's motion to continue. In deciding to grant defendant's motion, the court considered the factors outlined in 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B) and finds that denying the motion "would deny counsel for the defendant . . . the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence." Id. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

Accordingly, the court hereby ORDERS as follows:

1. The deadline for the filing of pretrial motions is continued to January 2, 2025;
2. The Pretrial Motions Hearing is continued to January 13, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. in Bluefield;
3. Jury Instructions and Proposed Voir Dire are due by January 27, 2025;
4. Trial of this action is continued to February 4, 2025, at 9:30 a.m. in Bluefield; and
5. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the time from the filing of the motion until the trial is excludable for purposes of the Speedy Trial Act.

The Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Memorandum Opinion and Order to all counsel of record, to the United States Marshal for the Southern District of West Virginia, and to the Probation Office of this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 8th day of October, 2024.
